PUBLICATION AND INDEXATION POLICY FOR CONGRESS PROCEEDINGS

The World Congress of Vine and Wine proceedings will be published and disseminated on a dedicated website on the Web of Conferences platform <https://oiv.edpsciences.org/en/all-proceedings>.

All the articles published will have a stable internet identity, which facilitates and provides for consistent identification and citation.

More specifically, each article will be:

- given a DOI (Digital Object Identifier), which enables the permanent identification of the document on the web, facilitates the use of bibliographic databases and produces more reliable and sustainable citations;
- indexed in the CrossRef®, DOI Foundation and Google Scholar databases, the Conference Proceedings Citation Index, as well as in DOAJ and ProQuest;
- free to consult and download, and published under the Creative Commons Attribution license, which authorizes the free use, distribution and reproduction of the work, provided the original document is properly referenced.

A range of services and indicators will be made available to authors and readers to encourage the circulation of scientific information and evaluate the impact thereof: search engines, alert systems, link-sharing, viewing statistics, follow-up of citations, etc... The site dedicated to the Congress will also offer a certain number of bibliometric tools.

We are offering authors submitting their article in English or in one of the other languages of the OIV with a title and a summary in English, the chance to publish their work in the BIO Web of Conferences journal. This is an open access journal dedicated to the publishing of conference proceedings in the life sciences fields.

Authors should give EDP Sciences a license for publishing the article and identify EDP Sciences as the original publisher.

If the author does not want an electronic reference for their article because the work has already been published in another scientific journal, the text will be included in the compilation of communications available during the Congress.
